MOVING TO SANTA ANA

W. E. PELLEY ESTABLISHING WHOLESALE AND RETAIL CANDY FACTORY THERE

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pelley, whose home is at 800 Raleigh street, are quitting Glendale to move to Santa Ana where they will open a wholesale and retail candy factory at 410 North Main street and where they will be glad to see their Glendale friends when they have occasion to pass through the town. A brother-in-law and partner, W. C. Witman, who came up from the Imperial Valley to join them, will go with them to the Orange county city and at once move there with his family. The Pelleys will not change their residence for a few weeks.

Mr. Pelley says the opportunities to make money by a combination wholesale and retail establishment are so tempting that in spite of the fact that he has all he can do as a wholesaler, he has decided to make the change and sell all he can over the counter, disposing of his surplus at wholesale. He has secured a beautiful large salesroom which will be equipped with the newest model of soda fountain and attractive furnishings calculated to please the best class of patronage. As soon as the business is established on a good paying basis Mr. Pelley expects to return to Glendale. He likes the city, and prefers to live here.

BIRTH OF GLENDALE

'TWAS IN VERITABLE GARDEN OF EDEN, CURSED FOR BRIEF TIME WITH SERPENT OF DRINK

The recent statement in the Evening News that Glendale never had a saloon was correct in the sense it was meant, that no city government of our beautiful commonwealth had ever depended on saloon license revenue to meet its expenses. But technically the statement was slightly in error for in 1887 the new settlement of Glendale, laid out the year before, was cursed with a grog shop for just three weeks. B. F. Patterson of 131 North Belmont gave the Evening News this information and he is an authority on Glendale, as he was one of the sponsors at its christening. He is a perfect mine of information on Glendale's birth and growth and can give it forth exceedingly well. When the Thorn-Ross-Crowe syndicate acquired the tract from which the future Glendale was carved, they built a narrow guage railroad on the present right-of-way of the Salt Lake line and named it the Los Angeles & Glendale Railway. Mr. Patterson was its president and general manager. He had located in the forest of live oak and sycamore that then covered this valley in 1883. He built a barn and later a house on what is now the northeast corner of Glendale avenue and Wilson avenue, cut away the live oak and sycamore trees, some of them more than four feet in diameter and set out the eucalyptus trees that now stretch 75 feet up in the air. In 1886 the town was laid out, its boundaries being Glendale avenue, Fifth St., Adams St. and First St. Mr. Patterson sent to Chicago for the company and had 10,000 maps of the new town made. Only one of these is now in existence as far as he knows and it is the property of F. W. McIntyre. The new town grew rapidly at first. Several trains a day were run on the little narrow gauge and Verdugo Park was a very

KNOWS HIS BUSINESS

A. S. KNOX EQUIPS HIS AUTOLECTRIC SHOP IN MOST THOROUGH MANNER

Taking his time and bound to have everything complete and up-to-date before opening up for business, A. S. Knox worked hard for weeks to get his equipment in perfect shape. So now he takes pride in inviting motorists to view his autolectric shop at 306 East Broadway. His complement of tools is complete, comprising every conceivable implement for the complicated and delicate work of repairing batteries and magnetos. As an alternating current is necessary for charging batteries he installed a dynamo for generating this current. It is run by a motor which is driven by current from the city wires. Mr. Knox has visited many cities in California and observed many electric service stations. He is confident that none of them, even in the largest cities, are more thoroughly and completely equipped for perfect work than his own.

EUSTACE A. ROWLEY

RECEIVES DISCHARGE FROM NAVY—MARBLEHEAD IS OUT OF COMMISSION

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley of 305 North Central avenue are contented parents. Their son, Eustace A. Rowley, surprised them by appearing Sunday and sooner than he was expected. All through the war he has been a seaman on the "Marblehead" which a few months ago was sent north to the Aleutian Islands with doctors, nurses and medical supplies for the relief of the natives who were suffering from a scourge of influenza. On its return to 'Frisco the Marblehead was ordered to Juneau to settle a misunderstanding between the whites and the Indians in regard to the work of damming the streams for mining purposes. It has always been performed by Indians and by common consent had come to be recognized as their task, but the whites were trying to prevent them from doing it. The matter was speedily adjusted and everything was quiet when the ship left. While in Alaska the boys had many frolics in the snow coasting down the mountain sides and enjoying other winter sports, and had an opportunity to do enough sight-seeing to get a very good idea of that part of Alaska.

When the Marblehead again came to San Francisco it was sent to Mare Island and put out of commission. It will probably remain in retirement until the personnel of the navy is sufficiently increased to warrant using it again. At the present time there are not enlisted men enough to man

MOLINE PLOW CO. MANAGER DEAD

T. J. Johnson, manager of the Los Angeles branch of the Moline Plow Co., died at his home, 1514 Reed St., Los Angeles, Tuesday, at 2:30 p. m. and was interred in Forest Lawn cemetery today. He was at the Glendale Sanitarium for several weeks being treated for heart trouble and complications and returned to his home just a week before his death, when it was seen that his recovery was impossible.

DELL W. LYNN

Dell W. Lynn, who conducted a restaurant on East Broadway, this city, and afterwards established the Golden State Restaurant on the same thoroughfare near Brand, died in Glendale August 13, 1919, of intestinal trouble after an illness of only a few days. He leaves a wife and a daughter, Mrs. I. J. Westphal, of 342 Ivy street, Glendale, and is also survived by his mother who resides in Kansas, and will be unable to attend funeral services which will be held Saturday, the 16th, at 2 p. m., at the Little Church of the Flowers, with the Scovern Company in charge. Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the Lutheran Church, will officiate, and interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

M. E. CONFERENCE

FIRST M. E. CHURCH VOTES TO INVITE SO. CAL. CONFERENCE TO GLENDALE

The quarterly conference held Wednesday night at the First Methodist Church and the family dinner which preceded it drew an attendance of 150 or more members. Balloting for trustees was begun at this meeting and the election will be concluded at an adjourned meeting.

The most important business transacted was the vote to extend an invitation to the Southern California Conference, which will meet this year in October at Santa Barbara, to hold its next regular annual conference in October, 1920, in Glendale. Glendale is rich in churches of the Methodist denomination, and it is believed that the delegates to the conference can be easily and handsomely entertained here if the organization accepts the invitation.

PICNIC SUPPER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ogg of 301 S. Kenwood street recently entertained with a picnic supper at Brookside Park for Mrs. George Latter and daughter Doris, and for Mrs. Lou Morehouse, her daughter Adele and son Glen, all of whom are leaving Glendale in the near future. Other guests entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse and daughter, Miss Bernice Morehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Widmark, Harold Latter, Earl Brown, Miss Margaret Lusby, and Mrs. C. H. Scott and Miss Isabel Cudebec of Los Angeles.

FAMILY OF SOLDIERS

LIVELY COMPETITION BETWEEN DAD AND THE BOYS IN PROMOTIONS

Mrs. J C. King, who has been living with her aunt, Mrs. Mary C. Ord, at 120 West Laurel avenue, for the past two years, is preparing to move with her two children to Dubuque, Iowa, where her husband, Lt. Col. King, has been appointed as Military Commandant of the military school. He belongs to the Regular Army and was in the cavalry when the war opened, but was sent to France with an infantry regiment, as cavalry was very little used over there. Her father, Col. John I. Ryan, who was also in the cavalry, went over in command of an infantry regiment. Both served all through the war and but recently returned. The wives of both men came to Glendale when they were sent abroad and have been living with Mrs. Ord. Col. Ryan has been sent to Texas for duty recently so Mrs. Ryan will join him there. Her youngest son was in the aviation service and he became a major just one day before his dad reached the same grade, but the latter was quickly jumped two numbers, landing in the Colonelcy while the boy got no higher than Major. Mrs. King and Mrs. Ryan both regret leaving Glendale, but, of course, are glad to be again with their husbands.

EDWARD W. FOOSE

Edward W. Foose, a former resident of Glendale, passed away at Pacoima, August 12th, after an illness which has lasted about two years. Funeral services will be held today, Friday, August 15, 1919, at 2 o'clock, at the Scovern Parlors, and interment will be at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. The deceased was 33 years of age and is survived by his mother, who resides in Los Angeles, a brother who is an attorney in Oakland, Cal., and an unmarried sister who is a stenographer in one of the Federal departments at Washington, D. C.

BACK TO THE OLD JOB

W. R. Phelon and wife, who recently returned to Glendale after a try at ranching near Victorville, are mightily pleased to get back. Mr. Phelon will go back to his old job with the Southern California Gas Co. He says he has completely regained his health, which was his object in making the move, about a year ago. He says the country around Victorville is well adapted for ranching but a man should have money enough to provide implements and to carry him through the first year. Though its elevation is only 3000 feet the weather is very much cooler than here, water pipes frequently freezing up in the winter. He and Mrs. Phelon spent two months at Big Bear after they left Victorville.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

PROPOSAL OF OLMSTEAD & GILLELEN TO DESIGN SEWAGE SYSTEM IS ACCEPTED

Board assembled at 8:10 p. m., August 14, 1919. Present on roll call: Trustees Henry, Jackson and Shaw. Absent: Trustees Muhleman and Woodberry. The City Clerk called the meeting to order and Trustee Jackson was elected Chairman pro tem. The minutes of the regular meeting of August 7, 1919, were read and approved.

Sewerage Disposal

A committee appointed at a meeting of the Anti-Annexation Association, consisting of W. E. Hewitt, F. H. Vesper, Roy Kent and Albert Pearce was present, and Messrs. Hewitt and Vesper, speaking for the committee, addressed the Board on the subject of a sewerage system, particularly for the business district of the city of Glendale. In connection with this subject, a letter was read from Olmstead & Gillelen, consulting engineers, stating that in response to request made by the City Manager the firm submitted the following proposition: To design a sewerage system for the congested business section of Glendale, with proper disposal which will harmonize as far as possible with the general plan for sewering the entire city in the best possible manner and in accordance with the most modern practice. The firm undertakes to investigate all the physical data relative to the work, and furnish plans and specifications for the same. The proposition includes all engineering work, both in the office and field, but does not include the naming or the paying of inspectors, which matter is left directly in the hands of the city; in return for these services the firm is to receive a return of 6 per cent. on any bond issue or issues which may be voted affirmatively and sold by the city of Glendale for the purpose of constructing the works herein contemplated. Out of this 6 per cent. commission is to be deducted initial payment of $500 to be made upon the submission to the Board of Trustees a complete report, not later than November 15, 1919. The $500.00 to constitute the only fee in case the money for executing the plans is not forthcoming.

Following the reading of this proposition, Mr. Olmstead addressed the Board. On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the proposition submitted by Olmstead & Gillelen be accepted.

A TERRIBLE MOMENT

W. E. EVANS WITNESSES NARROW ESCAPE OF HIS DAUGHTER FROM AUTO ACCIDENT

While in Glendale Thursday evening, City Attorney W. E. Evans told of an experience he had just been through that was nerve-racking while it lasted, though happily there were no serious results. In describing it he explained that he and the members of his family had motored from his summer cottage at Hermosa Beach to Redondo to see the battleships at anchor there. On returning to their home it was discovered that his little daughter Katherine had left her hat at the Redondo Hotel. He and she therefore drove back to recover it. He left his car standing in front of the hotel opposite the end of a street which steeply descends at that point from the hill above. Katherine remained in the machine. As he was starting to enter the hotel he saw an auto driver on the hillside street lose control of his car which shot forward at lightning speed toward his own auto in which his daughter was sitting. The direct blow which seemed imminent would be almost certain to overturn his car with no one knew what consequences. It was a terrible moment for him and one can imagine the thoughts which passed through his mind as he realized the peril of his only child and his inability to save her. But the gods were kind. Instead of hitting the Evans car squarely the onrushing auto through some agency was slightly deflected and struck the stationery car a glancing blow which turned it around without up-setting it, and no one was hurt. There was some minor damage to his car, but Mr. Evans is not considering that very much in view of what he escaped. The most serious effects were of course the shock to the nerves of little Katherine and her father. Mr. Evans admitted he was still shaken by the occurrence though several hours had elapsed, and said that he felt decidedly weak.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

W. C. ANDERSON AND R. F. KITTERMAN PURCHASE INTEREST IN GLENDALE INSTITUTION

W. C. Anderson, formerly of Aunsville, Oregon, and R. F. Kitterman, formerly of Hay Spring, Nebraska, have purchased an interest in the First National Bank of Glendale, California, and will become active in the management of the bank.

Mr. Anderson has been in the banking business for a number of years, starting at Aurora, Nebraska, later going to Chicago, and for the past six years has been in the banking business in Washington and Oregon.

Mr. Kitterman has been in the Loan, Investment and Banking Business in Nebraska for twenty years. During the past eight years he has been actively connected with the First National Bank of Hay Spring and the First National Bank of Chadron, Nebraska, as cashier.

On account of Ed M. Lee's health, he has found it necessary to be relieved from the duties in the bank, and expects to spend more time taking care of his personal interests.

M. P. Harrison also expects to devote more time to his outside interests. However, they will both retain an interest in the bank.

W. W. Lee will remain as president, and be active in the management of the bank.

FREEMAN BREWSTER

SECURES DISCHARGE FROM MARINE HEADQUARTERS AND SURPRISES HIS FATHER

George T. Brewster, desk sergeant of the Police Department, had a pleasant surprise when his son, Freeman Brewster, walked in upon him at the City Hall Wednesday afternoon. Freeman has been trying to break away from Marine Headquarters where he has been employed in Washington, D. C., for several months, but his superiors would not consider granting him a discharge until he could furnish another man to take his place. This he finally succeeded in doing. He had an excellent position at what seemed like a very good salary, but the cost of living in Washington is so very high, he says, it requires a princely salary to meet expenditures. He declares that California is the only country to live in. He is going to Catalina for a week's outing with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Haviland, and his cousins Steve and Dorinda, and has a prospect of a position with a Los Angeles oil company when he returns from there.

JAPANESE ACCUSED

The Southern California Retail Grocers' Association has put the high cost of vegetables and some of the fruits squarely up to the Japanese growers, who are charged with having formed a strong combine for the purpose of keeping up prices even by destroying some of their output if necessary for the success of their design. This report followed a close investigation of market conditions. The Association has decided to submit to the next Legislature a report on the "Japanese Problem."

TELEPHONE TOLLS

RAILROAD COMMISSION SETS SEPT. 2D AS DATE OF HEARING REVIEWS OF RATES

Fred Deal, manager of the Glendale Telephone Exchange, states that the California State Railroad Commission has set September 2d as the date for a hearing to be had at its headquarters in the north at San Francisco, California, on applications for a review of rates fixed while the lines were under federal control. The city attorney of Glendale has been instructed by the City Trustees to ask the Commission for an order to reduce the rates now charged in this city and his application will, no doubt, come up for consideration at that time. This is a matter of such general interest that the hearing will no doubt be largely attended.

Mr. Deal states that since the lines have returned to corporate ownership the telephone company has voluntarily reduced the charge for installing telephones to the old rate of $3.50 against $5, or more, charged under government control, and also agrees to refund the $3.50 at the end of a year's service. This charge, he says, will apply to all telephones actually installed after August first, regardless of the date when the application for a 'phone was filed.

Miss Louise Gonzales of 412 N. Louise is at Catalina.

J. N. Lindgren and family have moved from 356 West Harvard to 431 West Lexington Drive.

Oliver, have been confirmed by the young lady who admits they are to be married in the near future though the exact date has not been set. Miss Goddard was graduated from Glendale High with the class of 1919. She and her betrothed have a large circle of friends and well wishers here, especially in the south part of the city where Mr. Oliver established the Valley Press Printing establishment on the San Fernando Road about seven years ago.

NEW REPAIR GARAGE

Armstrong & Leeds are opening up a general repair garage in the rear of the building occupied by the Hudson and Essex agency, southwest corner Harvard street and Brand boulevard. Both are experts on auto construction and have had years of experience in handling different makes of machines. Both have just returned from strenuous service in the naval aviation service, where they had much to do with the engines of hydro-aeroplanes so they are well fitted by continuous experience with motor machinery to cope with all the illnesses to which auto engines are afflicted.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

A birthday luncheon in honor of Otis E. Goodman, was given by his sister, at her charming Glendale bungalow at 645 North Central avenue. The dining room was artistically decorated in pink roses and ferns, pink and green being used throughout the house. A pleasant surprise for Mr. Goodman was in the finding in a slice of the birthday cake of a beautiful diamond pin, the gift of the hostess. A delicious luncheon was followed by music and cards. There were a number of out-of-town guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wilson and son, Vincent, Jr., of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Swartz and daughter, of Salt Lake, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McGaugh, of Burbank; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGaugh and daughter, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. A. Pond, of Eagle Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Springer, of Glendale; H. A. Shiffer, Fred Kluman, Luke Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Corbaley, of Los Angeles; Howard Warren, of Hollywood.

L. A. WORKMAN INJURED

A slight accident was suffered Wednesday afternoon by a workman in the employ of a Los Angeles contractor who had taken the contract to move a house from Stanley avenue to property owned by a Mr. Fanning on Sycamore Canyon Road east of Verdugo Road. The house was acquired by the city under the proceedings for the opening and widening of Sycamore Canyon Road and was sold by the municipality to Mr. Fanning to be removed from the right of way. In the moving operations the big toe of a Los Angeles workman was crushed. The foreman on the job called up the City Hall asking that the man be removed to its emergency hospital and was informed that the city has no such asset, also that it had no responsibility since it no longer owned the house. After inevitable delay, the unfortunate man was conveyed to a Los Angeles hospital in a jitney at the expense of the contractor.

the new ships. The Marblehead has done fine work in carrying out the orders of the navy on special missions which have taken her from the isthmus on the south to the Aleutian Islands on the north and into the war zone on the Atlantic where she was a convoy.

Eustace Rowley has accepted his honorable discharge and left the service although given every inducement to remain that the government could offer. Practically every man on the ship preferred discharge. American boys are not used to the subservience to superior officers which is required of them in the army and navy, and this is true of commissioned officers as well as the rank and file of enlisted men. They find it irksome to be compelled to yield deference to men who in civilian life they might never choose as associates. They like the work, but until the army and navy are reorganized on democratic lines and some of the official red tape and snobbery is cut out, they declare the government will experience difficulty in securing recruits in times of peace. When faced by war, men will respond from motives of patriotism, but otherwise will not submit themselves to the system.

GLEN FREDERIC WOOD

Glen Frederic Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wood, of 1470 East Wilson Ave., was born May 11, 1890, in Ventura county, near the present city of Oxnard, and when Glen was seven years old, together with his parents, he moved to San Luis Obispo.

It was here under the pastorate of Rev. John D. Smithers, on July 25, 1902, at the age of 12 years, he became a member of the First Baptist Church of San Luis Obispo and for five years, from 1904 to 1909, Rev. Holman B. Turner was his pastor and friend.

After graduating from the grammar school at San Luis Obispo, he attended the California State Polytechnic School, graduating in 1909. He then entered the University of Southern California at Los Angeles and attended there for two and a half years until he contracted the sickness which compelled him to give up his studies.

Upon his parents moving to Glendale in the fall of 1909, he affiliated with the First Baptist Church of Glendale, Rev. J. F. Moody being his pastor and during the ministry of Rev. Moody, Rev. Eugene Haines and the later pastors of the Glendale Church, at such times as he was able he attended the services and meetings.

For more than seven and a half years Glen had made a brave fight to regain his health, but death finally conquered and on Tuesday night, August 12, 1919, at 9:05 o'clock, he passed to the place where there is no more pain nor suffering.

He was a member of Unity Lodge, No. 368, of Free and Accepted Masons, and at the time death took him, he was 29 years, 3 months and 1 day old.

Surviving him are his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wood, of Glendale, his brother, Forest W. Wood of San Luis Obispo, his sisters, Mrs. Hazel E. Williams of Chicago, and Mrs. Myrtle L. Chase, of Glendale, and his brother, Dale T. Wood of Glendale.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at the Jewel City Undertaking Chapel and were conducted by Rev. H. B. Turner, Rev. J. F. Moody and Rev. Eugene Haines, all former pastors of the deceased, assisted by Rev. Eugene Ford, present pastor of the Glendale Church. Interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Rev. H. B. Turner is now pastor of the Baptist Church at Hamilton, La., but chanced to be spending his vacation on the Pacific Coast. The presence of so many pastors, all of whom had known Glen well, made it an unusual service which was largely attended by Glendale friends and also by relatives from San Luis Obispo, Oxnard, Van Nuys, Redlands, Pasadena, and Los Angeles, the list including the grandmother of the deceased, Mrs. Brooks, of Ventura.

Y. P. B. ACTIVITIES

The Glendale Young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U. had a delightful picnic at Echo Park Tuesday night, under the chaperonage of Mrs. G. H. Rowe, who is at the head of the organization. About twenty-four were present to enjoy the good supper provided and moonlight boating on the lake. The State Superintendent, Miss Doughty, met with them and outlined plans for the convention to be held in Glendale next week Thursday and Friday, the 21st and 22d, at the First Baptist Church. On Thursday evening Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, president of the W. C. T. U., will be the speaker and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

The Y. P. B. is also philanthropic and recently conducted a devotional service which was largely musical at the Old Ladies' Home in Highland Park when to each of the 28 inmates they gave a fancy bag filled with home-made candy, which pleased the old ladies very much as did also the program.

FROMAGE NOT VINTAGE

A self-made Pittsburgh millionaire, who was not entirely finished, took a friend who was in an even more incomplete state of auto-construction to a dinner party. They sat upon either side of a beauteous lady, who undertook to discuss literature with her companions.

Turning to one on her left, she asked:

"Do you like Omar Khayyam?"

"Nome," replied the gentleman, truthfully. "I like sparklin' Burgundy; but them Hungarian wines don't seem to agree with me."

Going home in the car, the rugged capitalist, who had been placed upon the lady's right, turned in disgust upon his companion.

"Ya big slob," he ejaculated. "It looks like ya never will learn no culture. Don't ya know yet that Omar Khayyam ain't no wine? It's a cheese!"

Pacific Electric Ry. Co., Los Angeles, requesting that he be informed when a public hearing is had before the Trustees on the application of Harry A. Wilson for permission to operate a motor bus service through the city of Glendale between Pasadena and Ocean Park. Communication was filed.

A protest was read signed by Mrs. I. Thompson and C. E. Cook, against closing of a street running from Palmer avenue south, between Hill and Adams streets, the protest stating that the public had had use of the street for the past six years unrestricted. On motion of Trustee Shaw, the matter was referred to the City Engineer.

An invitation was read from the Mayor of the city of Venice, asking that the city of Glendale be represented at a reception to be given in Venice Sunday afternoon next, to Admiral Rodman. On motion of Trustee Henry, the City Attorney was authorized to represent the city on that occasion.

An application was presented from M. F. Goetz for permit to conduct auto business in the city of Glendale. It being approved by the City Manager, was, on motion of Trustee Henry, granted.

Application was presented from A. O. Duval for permit to operate a motor bus in the city of Glendale, which was on motion referred to the City Manager.

Application was presented from E. Mader, asking permission to discharge firearms within the city limits, in shooting ground squirrels on his own property. On motion of Trustee Henry, the permit was granted to apply only to the use of firearms on the applicant's own property.

Application to do street work by private contract was read from H. M. Wood, the work consisting of cement sidewalk on the corner of Adams St. and California Ave. The same being approved by the City Manager in the absence of the City Engineer, was, on motion of Trustee Shaw, granted.

Assessed Valuation of Glendale

The City Clerk reported having received from the County Auditor a statement of the assessed valuation of the city of Glendale, as shown on the tax rolls for the fiscal year 1919-1920. The statement was accompanied by a request that the auditor be advised promptly in regard to the tax rate. Total valuation of property in the city, as shown by this statement for taxation purposes is $7,436,440.

Flood Control and Brand Boulevard Bridge

The City Manager presented a report, consisting of a copy of a letter addressed to F. W. Regan, Engineer Los Angeles County Flood Control District, by the Committee appointed at the last Trustees' meeting to investigate and report upon the kind of piling which in the opinion of the Committee should be used for protection work along the Verdugo Wash. The letter states that the 2-inch iron piling used by the county in similar work in other places seems to be the most desirable from every point of view.

The City Manager presented a report in regard to protection work for Verdugo Canyon Wash and the Brand Blvd. bridge, showing that the employes of the Los Angeles Flood Control Commission have been at work during the last ten days laying out the official channel from Canada Blvd. to San Fernando Road, and also that advice had been received from the Engineer of the Pacific Electric Ry. Co., to the effect that the reconstruction of the company's tracks and the installation of a span bridge over the new proposed flood channel at Verdugo Wash has been approved, and that the company will work with the County officials in the prompt construction of the same. Total cost of these improvements will be approximately $70,000.

Annual Audit of Books

The City Manager presented a communication stating that the accounts of the city for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, are closed, and ready for the annual audit. The matter was discussed briefly but no action taken.

Transfer of Funds

On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the sum of $579.17 be transferred from the Sycamore Canyon Opening and Widening Fund to the General Budget Fund.

P. Diederich was authorized to appear before the Railroad Commission at its meeting on August 15, 1919, at 10 a. m. in reference to the hearing before that body of the application of the Sycamore Canyon Water Company.

Redemption of Max Muir Lots

The City Attorney submitted a report on the matter of the redemption of certain lots in the Max Muir tract, recommending that the city accept the sum of $388.45 for Quit Claim Deed to the property. On motion of Trustee Shaw, the recommendation of the City Attorney in regard to this matter was concurred in, and it was ordered that action be taken accordingly.

The City Attorney reported having received a copy of the order of the Railroad Commission for the hearing in San Francisco on September 2, 1919, at 10 a. m. on the matter of telephone rates.

California will produce 4,000,000 bushels of pears this year.

popular picnic ground, especially on Sundays, when excursion trains were run to accommodate the many people wishing to enjoy its beauties. Very few buildings had been erected west of Glendale avenue, the principal one being the hotel, where the sanitarium now stands. In 1887 a man from Denver came out to take charge of the hotel and put up a little building in which he started a saloon, then built a livery stable. The saloon had been running only three weeks, patronized almost entirely by the man's own carpenters and a few Mexicans, the Glendale people letting him severely alone, when officers of the law from Ohio came out with a warrant for his arrest and took him away. The saloon was immediately closed and was looked after by a Chinaman. One night it took fire and burned down with all its contents. The insurance company holding a policy on it suspected foul play and set detectives at work with the result that it was proven the Chinaman had been bribed to destroy the place for the insurance. That was the last attempt to run a saloon in Glendale. In 1888, Mr. Patterson said, the boom collapsed and the town ceased its growth for a number of years. Mr. Crowe, who owned quite a ranch where the Lomita Park tract now is, lost his all and died a poor man. Mr. Patterson was hard hit, also, he said, but managed to weather the storm. The only postoffice then was at Mason, now Tropico. It was years before Glendale could secure her own postoffice under the name of Glendale, and then only as a branch of the Los Angeles office.

As to the naming of Glendale, Mr. Patterson said Col. Moore, who lived at the foot of the hill southeast of town, had a visitor in the summer of 1886, a lady, who was quite an artist. She made several sketches of the valley and the new town and after there had been considerable discussion over the name to be chosen she was counseled with. "Why," said she, "there is only one name to be thought of for this beautiful spot nestling among the hills, and that is Glen-dale." The suggestion pleased every one and Glendale it has been ever since and always will be.
